

Declaration of the organizer on insured events.

Regarding insured events during international competitions, keep in mind the following:

- The organizer will not and cannot represent the pilot who caused the damage.
- The pilot is liable for damage caused by his activity during the competition.
- The participants in the incident are responsible for handling the entire compensation agenda.